

CV Heino von Prondzynski

Mr. Heino von Prondzynski was born in Cologne, Germany. He studied mathematics, geography, and history at the Westfälische Wilhelms University, Münster, Germany. He joined Bayer AG, where he held several positions within the company. Among other career accomplishments, Mr. von Prondzynski has been CEO of the diagnostics division of F. Hoffmann-La Roche Ltd., Basel, Switzerland and a member of the corporate executive committee of Roche. He is currently an independent consultant. Mr. von Prondzynski is an internationally recognized expert and accomplished business leader in the field of molecular diagnostics with an extensive network of contacts in the US, Asia and Europe.

Mr. Heino von Prondzynski is a member of comparable boards with supervisory function of the following German and foreign companies:

- Hospira, Inc., Lake Forest, IL, U.S.A.
- HTL-STREFA S.A., Warsaw, Poland (chairman)
- Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V. (Royal Philips Electronics), Eindhoven, The Netherlands
- Qiagen N.V., Venlo, The Netherlands

Mr. von Prondzynski has indicated his willingness to accept the role as Chairman of the Supervisory Board in case of his election.

He is intimately acquainted with the company, having been a member of the Supervisory Board of Epigenomics from May 2007 until March 2010