

Curricula vitae Franz Josef Walt

Franz Thomas Walt (*1959, Switzerland), Flims Dorf, Switzerland,
Chief Executive Officer of Quotient Ltd.

Education

1994 Master of Business Administration, City University, Bellevue, Washington, U.S.A.
1988 Management Diploma IMAKA, IMAKA Zürich, Switzerland

Professional career

1989-2011 F. Hoffmann La-Roche Ltd., Basel, Switzerland – several management positions in Germany, Spain, Asia and South America, most recently Chairman of the Board of Management at Roche Diagnostics GmbH, Mannheim, as well as Regional President Roche Diabetes Care and Head of EMEA and Latin America Regions

2012-2017 Siemens Healthineers AG, Munich – several management positions in the U.S.A. and Canada, most recently President Laboratory Diagnostics, Tarrytown, New York, U.S.A.

Essential activities

Mr. Walt has been Chief Executive Officer of NASDAQ-listed Quotient Ltd. since 2018, a diagnostics company headquartered in Newtown, Pennsylvania, U.S.A. He also owns Walt Consulting, a consulting firm.

Mr. Walt is not a member of other mandatory supervisory boards or comparable boards with supervisory function.

Further Information

Mr. Walt brings over 30 years of global experience in leadership roles at two of the largest healthcare companies, Siemens Healthineers and Roche, and as an expert advisor on the in-vitro diagnostics industry. Mr. Walt has particular expertise in the areas of innovation, new product introduction and commercialization, quality management and business turnaround.